Williams: The Bilderberg Bullies

By C. J. Williams

"Control energy and you control the nations, control food and you control the people" is a quote credited to former Secretary of State, Henry Kissinger. On the lam for several years now, avoiding foreign authorities wanting to question him about war crimes, conspiring to assassinate, and crimes against humanity, it appears Kissinger may be joined at the hip with a cartel of conniving control freaks and their cronies.

Addressing the 1992 Evian, France Bilderberg meeting, Kissinger has been attributed with saying: "Today Americans would be outraged if U.N. troops entered Los Angeles to restore order: tomorrow they will be grateful! This is especially true if they were told there was an outside threat from beyond, whether real or promulgated, that threatened our very existence. It is then that all peoples of the world will pledge with world leaders to deliver them from this evil. The one thing every man fears is the unknown. When presented with this scenario, individual rights will be willingly relinquished for the guarantee of their well being granted to them by their world

Now, I don't proclaim to have a crystal ball, but I do know within my Heartlar there will never, ever come a day when the raping pedophile legion of U.N. P. be welcomed anywhere in the U.S. of A. Never, ever will Americans willingly re collective right or willingly bow down to global governance.

The power broker's dawn of reckoning may arrive sooner than they think, as are beginning to understand that fear of terrorism can be promulgated from seas; to understand that, while American children are losing their lives fight freedom in sandy hell holes, we are losing more and more personal freedom own borders through Patriot Acts I & II and the Big Brother tactics of Homeland

Kissinger has spoken almost annually before the Bilderberg Club, an interm' god ole' boys club named after a Dutch hotel where their first formal meeting ' bullies, some of the most wealthy and influential European and American pov high security secrecy behind closed doors since 1954. A "Guidance Committee from undeveloped Third World countries, pilots the club. Today, at best estim controls 33% of the world's wealth.

In June 1973, a few Bilderbergers formed an even more powerful group, th which has been led by David Rockefeller, Standard Oil mogul and retired CEO Bank.

Members of the Trilateral Commission operate in tandem with the Bilderb somewhat loftier position as a center for research and analysis. It's estimat manages a whopping 60% of international wealth; manages almost 2/3 of the world's wealth while our kids flip BK burgers for pennies an hour, hoping to earn tuition money in case they survive the public school Outcome Based Education curriculum. OBE is a mind-numbing program that desensitizes youth to family values, sense of country and patriotism, and the Ten Commandments.

Attendance at the annual Bilderberg Bash is by invitation only. Although the known membership and some of the guests ooze wealth and power beyond belief, the less fortunate, but politically aspiring folks, can be invited and introduced as speakers at the power broker's pow-wows. Governor Clinton was introduced and spoke to the group in 1991; a year later he was president.

Over the years, those attending a Bilderberg Club meeting have included Tony Blair, Jacques Chirac, Donald Rumsfeld, Colin Powell, Maurice Strong, George Soros, Al Gore, John McCain, Diane Feinstein, John Kerry, John Edwards, publishers of some of the most prestigious newspapers in American, and on and on, ad nauseum.

In '91 David Rockefeller purportedly addressed meeting goers with these words: "We are grateful to the Washington Post, the NY Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promise of discretion for almost 40 years. It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subjected to the lights of publicity during those years. But, the world is more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national auto-determination practiced in past centuries."

"Our World Plan?" Wait a minute here, buckos. I've a few words for you. Last I knew, my family and I, my friends and their families, the folks in church on Sunday, and all the people I meet in the grocery store or pass on the highway aren't ready to goose-step toward a one world order and global government, not by a long shot!

There is still a vast majority of American citizens, both silent and vocal, who have aligned themselves right next to the Constitution of the United States of America, its Bylaws, and One Nation Under God, Indivisible, With Liberty and Justice for All. This majority has not risen to a level of sophistication that would cause any one of us to believe Socialism should reign supreme over Democracy and its inherent freedoms. We never will.

We American peon citizens have a different concept of what becoming sophisticated entails. Our sophistication isn't founded in limitless wealth and the fickle power money can buy. Our sophisticated reality is founded in the soil and factories, mills, and mines of our ancestors; in a bloodline laden not with avarice and sloth, but one built through blood, sweat, tears, and pride in doing a full day's work for a full day's pay. And for what? So that we may keep just a little of what we earn and give the rest to you, your groomed politicians, and your world leaders so your club members and guests can play deceitful games with all citizens of the world?

People like me denounce the behind closed doors scheming and plotting of you and your ilk. We denounce you for promulgating the terrorism fear factor in America. We denounce you for breaking our backs with ever increasing power, heat, medical, and insurance bills. We denounce you as we fill our overly priced vehicles with outrageously priced gas. We denounce you for cramming "sustainable" everything down our craws and driving up the cost of consumer goods.

We denounce you as our elderly live on pet food when they can't make ends meet because you keep moving the ends so your pockets can bulge even more.

We denounce and despise you for what you're doing to our children, our grandchildren, and those children's friends; your public school Outcome Based Education curriculums; your phony "No Child Left Behind" program, which leaves many kids starving to learn, but ignored by those paid to teach them; your plan for compulsory mental health and physical stamina testing in elementary schools; your plan to take God and Country out of our public school classrooms. We denounce and despise you for so many things that you'd likely die of old age before we could spew them all out of our wrenching gut.

You've hidden your self-serving gluttonous Agenda 21 plan under the U.N.'s cloak of deceit because you know that never, ever will the vast majority of American citizens, through fear or guilt, buy into the 1995 U.N. rendition of "Our Global Neighborhood": "To keep global resource use within prudent limits while the poor raise their living standards, affluent societies need to consume less. Population, consumption, technology, development, and the environment are linked in complex relationships that bear closely on human welfare in the global neighbourhood. Their effective and equitable management calls for a systemic, long-term, global approach guided by the principle of sustainable development, which has been the central lesson from the mounting ecological dangers of recent times. Its universal application is a priority among the tasks of global governance."

The fact is, sirs, until greedy affluent power mongers butt out, the oppressed poor in your Global Neighborhood will never raise their living standards. This was never so clearly understood as when our youth marched across Iraq, uncovering squalor and mass gravesites, while exposing the draconian despotism of an omnipotent tyrant made rich at the expense of his people. I would expect that once you have broken the iron will of the American people, all citizens in your global neighborhood will remain impoverished while the Bilderberg Bully Boys and their ilk continue to wallow in omnipotent splendor.
