Subject: The answer is

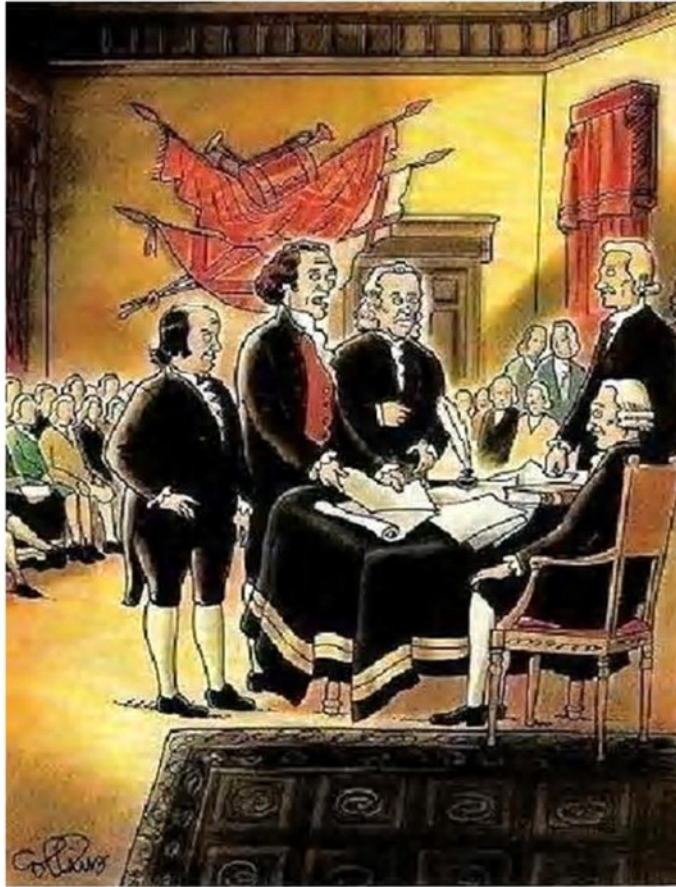

This was just too good to not pass on, please excuse the French...

"Of course, the reason the "no fucking moron clause" wasn't included when Jefferson suggested it, was because Ben Franklin pointed out that "if we don't allow morons to be elected then we would never be able to elect enough congressmen to have a vote."

The motion passed and was seconded to NOT pass the motion and the rest is history.

MAYBE THIS IS THE BEST POLITICAL CARTOON EVER!

"I keep thinking we should include something in the Constitution in case the people elect a fucking moron."
