Subject: You Told Me Mom to Take Responsibility

In reply to the MADD Mothers Poem below - I offer the following prose in the spirit of compassion, freedom and liberty

You Told Me Mom To Take Responsibility

If you go against what Mom and I have told you
And you violate what God has laid in stone

Don't expect Mom or I or the state to save you It's called the Golden Rule

If you do something stupid, Son
Your duty is to stand up and admit your wrong Never involve others, Son
Only those who you have wronged or those who have done you wrong

Your vehicle is private property, Son
No one may take or regulate away your rights Treat your vehicle just like a loaded gun
They are equally your best friend or your enemy, all in one

Many people transfer their individual guilt and responsibility
To others in society, because their anger and grief is so strong
They cannot see this insensibility
Misery loves company, do you understand, my Son

The state obligingly takes away your individual rights
And replaces it with tyranny
To enforce what you and Mom and I, already know is a right Socialism cannot replace your individual responsibility

Those who are not strong or big enough
Empower others to bear their own burdens
Because they want everyone to pay far too much
So they create a Department of Tyranny

This is why Mom and I have raised you so, My son
With tuff love, hard truth and compassion
You become responsible with these burdens upon you Without this personal accountability, you have none

Looking for the "someone's" to find blame
Is an age old game, my Son
The buck stops at your name

Don't come begging to Mom and I or the state, my Son

Mom and I, love you more than anything
 This is why we give you this gift of responsibility Cherish this accountability as near divine Never ask others to take this away, temping as it may be, even for your so called "safety"

Our government has debased itself and shamed us all Taking your personal rights away, even for your own so called
 "safety"
 Invading others rights and privacy, the state creates a crime, before it has happened at all Thereby creating more unnatural, uncommon and unconstitutional
 legal tyranny

Each morning, my Son, when you leave home
 You will find life full of dangers, around every turn State legislative and DOT codes, licenses, tickets and fees, are illegitimate and unnecessary tyranny
 All created for their own selfish careers, perpetuated upon others insecurities and fears

Composed by Jack Venrick
 Enumclaw, Washington
 November 7, 2008

"The ideal tyranny is that which is ignorantly self-administered by its victims. The most perfect slaves are, therefore, those which blissfully and unawaredly enslave themselves."

"A truth's initial commotion is directly proportional to how deeply the lie was believed. It wasn't the world being round that agitated people, but that the world wasn't flat.

When a well-packaged web of lies has been sold gradually to the masses over generations, the truth will seem utterly preposterous and its speaker a raving lunatic"

I received an email petition accompanied by a poem about a young girl killed by a drunk driver. Is this petition sponsored by MADD? What happens to the signatures?

The petition circulating via e-mail accompanied with the poem titled "I Went to a Party Mom" did not originate with nor is it endorsed by MADD.

While the petition you received probably began with good intentions, MADD did not initiate the campaign. Some variations of the e-mail use language that we feel to be inappropriate. Moreover, the e-mail asks you to participate in a petition, which does little to advance the fight against drunk driving.

Your inquiry about this petition shows that you would like to help. You can make a real difference today in the fight against drunk driving and underage drinking by signing MADD's official Pledge to Eliminate Drunk Driving.

Browse our Web site to learn how you can play a part in MADD's lifesaving work and to find out more about the Campaign to Eliminate Drunk Driving. If you are a MADD supporter, please also consider making a donation to MADD.

The mission of Mothers Against Drunk Driving is to stop drunk driving, support the victims of this violent crime, and prevent underage drinking. Thank you again for your support.

read all the way to the bottom and sign your name)

I went to a party,
And remembered what you said.
You told me not to drink, Mom,
so I had a sprite instead.

I felt proud of myself,
The way you said I would,
that I didn't drink and drive, though some friends said I should.

I made a healthy choice,
And your advice to me was right.
The party finally ended,
and the kids drove out of sight.

I got into my car,
Sure to get home in one piece
I never knew what was coming, Mom, something I expected least.

Now I'm lying on the pavement,
And I hear the policeman say,
the kid that caused this wreck was drunk, Mom, his voice seems far away.

My own blood's all around me,
As I try hard not to cry.
I can hear the paramedic say,
this girl is going to die.

I'm sure the guy had no idea,
While he was flying high.
Because he chose to drink and drive,
now I would have to die .

So why do people do it, Mom
Knowing that it ruins lives?
And now the pain is cutting me,
like a hundred stabbing knives.

Tell sister not to be afraid, Mom
Tell daddy to be brave.
And when I go to heaven,
put ' Mommy's Girl' on my grave.

Someone should have taught him,
That it's wrong to drink and drive.
Maybe if his parents had,
I'd still be alive.

My breath is getting shorter,
Mom I'm getting really scared
These are my final moments, and I'm so unprepared.

I wish that you could hold me Mom,
As I lie here and die.
I wish that I could say, 'I love you, Mom!'
So I love you and good-bye.

Answers

I received an email petition accompanied by a poem about a young girl killed by a drunk driver. Is this petition sponsored by MADD? What happens to the signatures?

The petition circulating via e-mail accompanied with the poem titled "I Went to a Party Mom" did not originate with nor is it endorsed by MADD.

While the petition you received probably began with good intentions, MADD did not initiate the campaign. Some variations of the e-mail use language that we feel to be inappropriate. Moreover, the e-mail asks you to participate in a petition, which does little to advance the fight against drunk driving.

Your inquiry about this petition shows that you would like to help. You can make a real difference today in the fight against drunk driving and underage drinking by signing MADD's official Pledge to Eliminate Drunk Driving
