We are asking for your assistance...

For those of us who are concerned and/or disappointed in the nomination of Ryan Zinke for Secretary of the Interior, we are asking that you contact Trump's transition team and others shown below, and/or other avenues you may be aware of in order to post comments. Though we may be limited in what change we can effect, we think it is truly worth the effort. We may not be able to effect a change in Trump's selection, but it certainly appears that we need to do some intense educating of both President-Elect Trump and Ryan Zinke, particularly on the tribal issues.
