

John (Jack) R. Venrick

---

From: "Jack Venrick" <jacksranch@skynetbb.com>
To: <jacksranch@skynetbb.com>
Sent: Wednesday, October 07, 2009 2:50 PM
Subject: CONTROL THE WATER, CONTROL THE POPULATION

To: Property Rights and Freedom Foundations, Washington State House, Senate, US Senators & Reps, Washington State Governor Staff, Washington State Supreme Court, King County Ag, King County, Puget Sound Media, Friends

---

This is an exceptional writing by Gregory Williams below, which lays out the hard truth clearly. Don't let the title and introduction fool you. Thank you Dan B. for all your incoming!

This summarizes what I have found after 5 years of growing research into the complete loss of our rights and traditions.

It is imperative each of us take action and organize ourselves around your nearest property rights groups and freedom foundations and any other groups who are increasingly standing up for nothing short of the collapse of the the current feudal systems of illusion. We will NOT be free until the illusion falls completely and then it will try to rise again and again. This is a global house of taking. Reform and change will never happen.

The masses have been thoroughly hypnotized into a trance where they think they are not worthy of being sovereign and free agents, but somehow the state is worthy of all they are not. 92% of American's do not understand and/or refuse to understand what is happening. Those living in and on the SYSTEM are deaf, dumb and blind. We all live in this Grand Illusion that the SYSTEM is our only choice.

These elite Illusionists are systemically and very successfully culling the sovereign and free natural born Americans and others in the world from their private and public property and their traditional way of life. That is, those who have an ounce of these precious gifts remaining.

Our property and our traditional way of life are being collateralized using centuries of debt and other illusions, which has been orchestrated to bankrupt the remaining "free" countries, i.e. extortion.

Even the most opened minded person will have great difficulty grasping the extent of brainwashing of belief systems used to take us all down. It is truly unimaginable what has happen. The avalanche of takings are becoming increasingly disparate and backed by superstition pounded into US by the SYSTEM for centuries. The SYSTEM is in deep trouble. They are increasingly issuing worthless debt going into increasing debt while they increasing foreclose on US. All using junk "science", "currency", illegitimate taxes, fictional regulations and a police state to prop themselves up.

I will be sending out the following special report soon, "A Web Site Report on The Root of All Evil - Lifting The Veil of the SYSTEM of Grand Illusion". This report has been in work for months, backed up by some 5 years of credible material, much of it from some of you who are closely tracking this growing massive take over.

"Out of clutter, find simplicity.
From discord, find harmony.
In the middle of difficulty lies opportunity."
Albert Einstein, Three Rules of Work

Jack Venrick
Enumclaw, Washington
www.freedomforallseasons.org
The Boeing Company
30 Years Retired
Systems Engineering
Montana State University
B.S. Electrical Engineering
M.S. Applied Science
Industrial Engineering
Business Administration

----- Original Message -----

From: Dan B.

To:

Sent: Tuesday, October 06, 2009 8:08 PM

Subject: CONTROL THE WATER, CONTROL THE POPULATION

The Government HAS the Right to Take

Our Water Away....

---

CONTROL THE WATER, CONTROL THE POPULATION

by Brother Gregory Williams

September 26, 2009

NewsWithViews.com <http://www.newswithviews.com/Gregory/williams108.htm>

Water is an essential element of life and therefore the control of water is an essential element to the control of people. Congress cannot grant itself new rights any more than the 16 Amendment granted it new taxing authority.[1] Senate Bill 787 introduced by Senator Feingold as The "Clean Water Restoration Act" does not grant to congress a new regulatory right over all waters which ebb and flow, including lakes, rivers, streams, mudflats, sandflats, wetlands, sloughs, prairie potholes, wet meadows, playa lakes, or natural ponds.[2] They already have it.

Congress is merely attempting to pass a bill to regulate rights we the people have failed to retain.[3] That is not what people want to hear, but that is what they need to hear. It is what Patrick Henry called the whole truth. The question is why does congress have that power and why have we failed to retain it?

We need to take a look at a wider picture and discover how liberty is gained and lost. People are charging around at the red cape of congress imagining that this "apparent" seizure of water rights is some sort of unwarranted usurpation of their property rights. If this was an usurpation of a bonafide right we could honestly revolt in righteous disobedience.

Everyone should know and those whom you chose to have ministered your education and enlightenment should have told you that at least since 1933 it has been well established, published, and cognizable in courts that "The ultimate ownership of all property is in the State; individual so-called 'ownership' is only by virtue of Government, i.e., law, amounting to mere user; and use must be in accordance with law and subordinate to the necessities of the State.”[4]

This idea that “individual so-called 'ownership' is only by virtue of Government” is the absolute antitheses of what is required to maintain a pure republic. As we have already seen in previous articles a Republic[5] is “A state or nation in which the supreme power rests in all the citizens...” so at least since 1933 the republic was virtually dead or at least abandoned.

The Federal government is supposed to guarantee to the States a “Republican form of government” but the people are supposed to “retain” their own rights. For the “supreme power” to remain with the people in the state they must lead lives that keep them independent of the “government.” Maintaining a republic is the responsibility of the people who live in it.

Ben Franklin was not kidding when he stated and asked, “You have a republic, now can you keep it?” When God granted man dominion on this planet, He directed and warned us to “dress it and to keep it” because if we were slothful we were likely to loose that individual dominion and go under the authority of another like Cain, Nimrod, Pharaoh, Saul, Caesar or whatever flavor is most popular.

“The first farmer was the first man, and all historic nobility rests on possession and use of land.” Emerson.

Early Americans came here to obtain an actual freehold title in land. Many, like the pilgrims who called themselves Separatists, would not even agree to come to America unless they could eventually obtain such fee simple tenure title where they actually owned the use of the land untaxed.

They knew that it was essential that the use of the land actually belonged to the people with no lord of earth standing between them and their God given dominion. The Pilgrims, and the Company who made their journey possible, had agreed that after 7 years of working for that Company some land and its use would actually be owned by the people independently of the Company. Since almost half of the original settlers were dead after the first year the price they were willing to pay for actual and clear title to land was extreme.

A Freeman[6] had and is defined as someone who had a free hold title in land. In colonial America, “The ordinary citizen, living on his farm, owned in fee-simple, untroubled by any relics of Feudalism, untaxed save by himself, saying his say to all the world in townmeetings, had gained a new self-reliance. Wrestling with his soul and plow on week days, and the innumerable points of the minister’s sermon on Sundays and meeting days, he was becoming a tough nut for any imperial system to crack.”[7]

It was for these reasons and their fierce self reliance and independence that the Freemen of America were able to lawfully sign the Declaration of Independence claiming an unwarranted usurpation by the king. These Freemen were still a minority in America, today they are almost none existent.

“Liber homo. A free man; a freeman lawfully competent to act as juror.[\[8\]](#) An allodial proprietor, as distinguished from a vassal or feudatory.”[\[9\]](#)

They understood that the King was revolting against the terms of the Charters and the natural rights they had obtained through their own sweat and blood. Men earned a free status by taking responsibility for themselves and earning the beneficial use of their own land and property by paying for it with the substance of their own being.

It was the propertied class and those who hoped to be Freemen someday who sought a righteous independence from unlawful usurping tyranny. These few but freedom loving Americans who were risking all so that they and their children might remain free were not rebels, but revolutionaries, and had been so since they first stepped foot in this new world.

Those who sought to be free souls under God, accepted the responsibilities coeval with those endowed rights. As usual most of the people were lukewarm on the subject. Over fifty thousand Americans joined the British to fight against those Americans seeking independence from the Crown's abuses of their well earned liberty.

These freeholders were not “contending that our rabble, or all unqualified persons, shall have the right of voting, or not be taxed; but that the freeholders and electors, whose right accrues to them from the common law, or from charter, shall not be deprived of that right.”[\[10\]](#)

Citizenship “in the United States” has become “a political obligation depending not on ownership of land, but on the enjoyment of the protection of government; and it ‘binds the citizen to the observance of all laws’ of his sovereign.”[\[11\]](#)

This is a far cry from statements of the courts back in 1829 which said things like “People of a state are entitled to all rights which formerly belonged to the king by his prerogative.”[\[12\]](#) Or declarations of the court in 1793 which state, “In one sense, the term ‘sovereign’ has for its correlative ‘subject.’ In this sense, the term can receive no application; for it has no object in the [Original] Constitution of the United States. Under that Constitution there are citizens, but no subjects.”[\[13\]](#)

What has happened to turn the world upside down and make the government sovereign and the people subject? This shift in society in relationship to its government seems to make the gains of that revolutionary conflict and the prior struggles and sacrifice little more than a failed enterprise.

We have rested far too long on the laurels of men, long dead, who once secured God-given rights for themselves and their posterity. Their pursuit of life, liberty, and happiness required a virtuous society composed of “minutemen” in word and deed, willing to pay the ultimate price for their sons, daughters and even their neighbors' freedom. Our modern pursuit of personal happiness has involved; not a virtuous heart but a visa mentality; not minutemen of service and sacrifice, but a government of benefits and entitlements at the expense of our neighbor; not a society willing to pay the price of liberty for all, but a monetary system of indebtedness at the expense of our children.

Why have the people gone from sovereigns to subjects?

There are numerous reasons for this shift of which I could write a book about and have. [\[14\]](#) One reason is because people naturally want to believe they are free.

“None are more hopelessly enslaved than those who falsely believe they are free.” [\[15\]](#)

Another reason is that Citizens of the United States do not own freehold title in land. They have, at best, a mere legal title. A “legal title” is only an “apparent right of ownership and possession, but which carries no beneficial interest in the property, another person being equitably entitled thereto; in either case, the antithesis of ‘equitable title.’” [\[16\]](#)

To put it more simply, people work all their lives to obtain a legal title which does not include the right to the, “Profit, benefit, or advantage resulting from a contract, or the ownership of an estate...” [17] They have just paid for the right to rent the land they live on, the use of which is highly regulated.

Their ownership is not by the virtue and endowment of God to dress and keep but is by the “virtue of Government.” As a mere user, a United States citizen, they must pay a use tax if they wish to keep “the right to use and enjoy property according to one’s own liking or so as to derive a profit or benefit from it...”[18] Fail to pay and you will be evicted. Fail to comply and you will be fined. Fail to bow and you will be punished. To call our selves free makes a mockery of those sacrificed that we might be free.

This tax is called tribute. Tribute is, “A sum of money paid by an inferior sovereign or state to a superior potentate, to secure the friendship or protection of the latter.” [\[19\]](#) This “Excise (tribute), in its origin, is the patrimonial right of emperors and kings.” [\[20\]](#)

“The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute.”
Proverbs 12:24

If you owe Caesar you must pay Caesar, but have the honesty, courage and diligence to ask and seek the whole truth in righteousness as to why ye are subject to his ordinances and tribute?

“Blessed [are] they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.” Matthew 5:6

Footnotes:

1. Stanton v. Baltic Mining Co., 240 U.S. 103, 112 (1916)
2. Senate Bill – 787, Section 3 \(8\) A through G
3. “The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.” Ninth Amendment, Bill of Rights.
4. Senate Document # 43; SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 62 (Pg 9, Para 2) April 17, 1933.
5. Chapter 7. of the book The Covenants of the gods, Republic vs Democracy.
6. “Freeman; the possessors of allodial lands.” See Liberi, Blacks 3rd. & Oxford Dictionary
7. History of the U.S. Vol.1 James Truslow Adams, p. 176.
8. Ld. Raym. 417; Kebl. 563.
9. Black’s 3rd Ed. page 1105.
10. The Works of Alexander Hamilton, edited by Henry Cabot Lodge, N Y, 1904, I, 172. 9 Ibid., March 31, 1768.
11. Wallace v. Harmstad, 44 Pa. 492; etc.(1863) Black’s 3rd Ed. p. 95.
12. Lansing vs Smith 21 D. 89...4 Wendell 9, 20 (1829) [Court of Appeals of New York, relevant to eminent domain law]
13. Chishom v. Georgia, 2 Dall. (U.S.) 419,455, 1L Ed 440 (1793).
14. The Covenants of the gods
15. Johann W. Von Goethe
16. Black’s Law Dictionary 3rd Ed. p. 1734.(“Legal” & “Equitable” titles.)
17. Black’s 3rd p 206
18. Beneficial Use, Black’s 3rd p 206
19. Brande. Black’s 3rd Ed. p. 1757.
20. Vectigal, origina ipsa, jus Cæsarum et regum patrimoniale est.

© 2009 Brother Gregory Williams - All Rights Reserved

Sign Up For Free E-Mail Alerts

E-Mails are used strictly for NWVs alerts, not for sale

---

Brother Gregory was born in America in 1948. His father was a practicing attorney and his mother the daughter of Norwegian immigrants. He Married in 1973, and is the Father of 6 children with a growing number of grandchildren. He grew up in southeast Texas, attending private schools, entering the seminary at 13, where he studied Latin, Greek, and theology. In the course of these studies he began to become aware of secrets hidden for centuries within ancient libraries that began to reveal a more fundamental purpose in the gospel of Christ. His quest to understand the “whole truth” has led him down a labyrinth of law and language, history and prophecy, fable and fallacy, in a unique portrait of bondage and betrayal, liberty and freedom, and the solution and salvation.

He is the author of several books, include The Covenants of the gods, Thy Kingdom Comes, and The Free Church Report, dozens of pamphlets, audio, and video recordings. He has appeared on radio and television “preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God” which is at hand, within your reach. His common theme is how are men brought into bondage and how are they made free souls under God. His hope and prayer is to bring man's relationship with the God of creation and his relationship with the gods of the “world” into a new perspective and light. Knowing the truth shall set you free, if we will do the will of our Father in heaven.

He now lives near Summer Lake, Oregon where he continues to care for his family, tending sheep of the Church and overseeing the edification of the Church established by Christ in the hearts and minds of congregations of the people, for the people, by the people who will seek the Kingdom of God and His righteousness.

Website: HisHolyChurch.org

Other
Williams
Articles:

The Decline of Freedom

Romans 13 and Christ's "Clergy Response Teams"

More
Williams
Articles