

Council on Foreign Relations

The Conspiracy Against America

The Trilateral Commission

The story you are about to read is true, the names of the people and organizations have not been changed. While most of us have been going about our daily lives, some things have been happening that you should know about. A small group of wealthy people have been setting up what they call "The New World Order". Led by David Rockefeller; a powerful coalition of multinational corporations, international bankers, politicians, and members of the news media, have formed a secret organization called the Trilateral Commission(TC). This organization and its parent organization, the Council on Foreign Relations(CFR), have been exerting an undue influence on the lives and futures of the American people. Their meddling for profit and power has been responsible for a host of problems we have been facing as a nation. In brief, we shall see Ronald Reagan's involvement with the CFR/TC, the extent of the power held by the CFR/TC and what their intentions are.

The power of the Wall Street Eastern Establishment is much greater than you might think. This fraternity of CFR/TC has been so successful that its members have virtually dominated every administration in Washington, D.C. since the days of F.D.R. When George Wallace threatened to make this a campaign issue, the CFR controlled N.Y. Times; in an effort to white wash the exposure, actually came out and admitted they had this kind of control. Now you know why there isn't a dime's worth of difference between the Republican and Democratic parties. These presidential puppets just keep on appointing CFR/TC members to key positions in their administrations. The Carter administration was a prime example; where nearly every cabinet post was filled by either a CFR member or a TC member. Jimmy Carter, himself, was a founding member of the TC. The CFR/TC has been referred to as the invisible or shadow government. Our elected officials come and go, but the CFR/TC is always there. As you can see this small group of around 2,000 people have been running this country for the past several decades.

With the election of Ronald Reagan, the CFR/TC could have suffered a severe set back. Reagan is not a member of either the CFR or the TC, and he does not agree with their "One World" concepts. While Reagan is aware of the CFR/TC's existence; he does not believe they are conspiratorial. This could explain why many of the people around him are either CFR or TC members. Selection of CFR member Wm. J. Casey for campaign manager was one of the first signs of trouble. Keeping Bill Brock(CFR) as Republican National Chairman was next. CFR campaign advisors such as; William Simon, George Schultz, and Ann Armstrong were very disheartening. These advisors were instrumental in the selection of George Bush(CFR/TC) for Vice-President; which(as we so well know) puts us just one heartbeat away from another Trilateral administration, like the last one. Reagan's CFR/TC dominated transition team were responsible for getting several of their fellow members selected to cabinet posts. A few examples are: Sec. of State, Alexander Haig(CFR); Sec. of Defense, Casper Weinberger(TC); Sec. of the Treasury, Donald Regan(CFR); Sec. of Commerce, Malcomb Baldrige(CFR); and Director of the CIA, Wm. J. Casey(CFR). A number of sub-cabinet positions have also gone to CFR/TC members. These appointments are critical as Reagan's approach to government is to find qualified men and give them vast amounts of authority. The American people have asked for a change, but these choices will only help insure the CFR/TC cartel of continued control over our government. A few examples of this control will give you an idea of just what Ronald Reagan is up against.

Why do the super rich want control over our government? Monopoly control of industry was once the goal of J.P. Morgan and J.D. Rockefeller; but, by the turn of the century they decided the most effective way to gain a monopoly was to go political and make society work for them. In other words, buy government officials through campaign funds, bribes, or whatever it takes. Then set them to work for you to eliminate the competition through legislation, government policies, red tape, etc. From a monopolist's point of view, competition is a sin. With the competition gone, they can name their own price.

A recent example of this is the major oil companies. All the major oil companies have interlocking boards of directors (just loaded with CFR/TC members). This allows them to act together as one giant monopoly. In order to justify the large price increases we have experienced in petroleum products, they created a shortage. To do this they called on "their" government for help. In a time of increasing oil consumption; governmental policies, edicts, regulations, harassments, etc. have reduced the number of independent oil drillers (the competition) by 50%. The E.P.A. did its part by requiring the gas guzzling smog devices and they all but stopped new refinery construction with their environmental restrictions. At the same time, the Rockefeller backed ecology groups have stopped enough off-shore oil well drilling to cause a crisis in itself. Domestic oil production dropped 40% after the $6 a barrel price control was put on it. The windfall profits tax, which only applies to domestic oil, is designed to further discourage domestic oil production. The big oil companies merely increased their imports, while many of the independents are going under. Meanwhile, the O.P.E.C. countries sensed our dependence on them and decided to cash in. The CFR/TC controlled news media did their thing by blaming the whole problem on O.P.E.C. It took them a while but they finally got their energy crisis going. As a result of this planned shortage, we pay 4 times as much for our gasoline, the cost of Living index takes a great leap forward, America becomes more dependent on foreign oil and last but not least, the oil companies make record profits. All the while, we have plenty of oil right here at home. As soon as the competition is eliminated and the price is right, they will be only too glad to sell us this oil; at the higher price, of course. The energy crisis hoax is just one example of the kind of control the CFR/TC have over us.

The international bankers, through the Federal Reserve System have even greater control over us than the oil companies. A prominent European international banker once said, "Give me control over a nation's money and I don't care who makes the laws". Our founding fathers knew this only too well; and they gave Congress the power to coin and regulate the value of money in our Constitution. Ever since that time, the international bankers schemed to get this power away from Congress. They finally succeeded when the Rockefeller, Morgan, and European banking interest set up what has become the Federal Reserve System. It is patterned after the European central banking systems which have held Europe in economic slavery for centuries. In the Federal Reserve Act of 1913, Congress, many unknowingly, delegated their authority over our money to the international bankers. The only control the government has over the Federal Reserve System is the President appoints one of the 7 board members every two years. (Over the years, virtually every key man on the Federal Reserve System has been a CFR member.) This lack of governmental control is brought out in a "Primer of Money" published by the House Banking and Currency Committee in 1964, which says, "Although a creature of Congress, the Federal Reserve System is, in practice, independent of that body in its policy making...the Federal Reserve neither requires nor seeks the approval of any branch of government for its policies. The system itself decides at what ends its policies are aimed and takes whatever actions it sees fit to reach those ends." So with the international bankers in control of our money system, let's see what they have done with this control.

If the American people ever caught on to the abuses of the Federal Reserve there would be a scandal in Washington that would put Watergate to shame. It has been estimated that one trillion dollars in purchasing power has been embezzled from the American people over the past 40 years by the inflationary policies of the Federal Reserve in conjunction with the CFR controlled U.S. Government. Inflation has been blamed on everyone from housewives to labor unions, but what is the real cause of inflation? Webster's Dictionary defines inflation as, "an increase in the amount of currency in circulation resulting in a relatively sharp and sudden fall in its value and rise in prices; it may be caused by an increase in the volume of paper money..." That's the real cause, printing press money. You flood the market with anything and its value goes down. (Have you ever thought of inflation as being devaluation of the dollar on a daily basis? Well that is what it amounts to.) Since the Federal Reserve has had control of our paper money supply, it has increased the supply and interest rates and thereby manipulates the entire economy, creating inflation or deflation, recession or boom, and sending the stock market up or down at whim. If you chart the Dow Jones Averages and the Federal Reserve monetary policies, this control becomes readily apparent. How would you like to have known about the 1929 crash in advance? You could have sold out just before and been sitting on a pile of cash to buy back the same stocks at a fraction of the price, just like the Federal Reserve insiders did. Now you know why we have to go through these recessions, so the big boys can make a killing, in fact, that is why the minutes of the Federal Reserve Board are not made public for 6 years. Former Chairman Arthur Burns himself said, if they were released sooner, speculators would make a killing. Federal Reserve officers themselves own over 100 million in stocks, talk about conflict of interest. As if this was not enough, we shall see how the Federal Reserve is reaching into our pockets through taxation.

What in the world does the Federal Reserve have to do with taxes? When the government spends more than it takes in from taxes, they borrow the rest. This is called deficit spending and it results in a national debt. The national debt now amounts to over 930 billion dollars. We are now paying, out of our tax dollars, over 79 billion dollars a year interest on a national debt and we don't owe it to ourselves. You guessed it, we owe it to the international bankers, thanks to the Federal Reserve System. Where do they get the money to loan us? Since we are no longer on the gold standard, they just turn on the printing presses. After all, that is the power Congress gave them in 1913, a license to steal. On the other end, the CFR/TC members see to it that the bureaucracy keeps up the deficit spending. Becoming involved in no-win wars works the best, the national debt has always skyrocketed in war years. This deficit spending also contributes to inflation. Dumping more printing press money on the market for the same amount of goods and services. Actually, this is the whole reason for the income tax amendment; to set up a means of paying the interest on the national debt, they were going to run up. That's why J.P. Morgan and J.D. Rockefeller had their pet senator from Rhode Island introduce the amendment, right after they set up tax exempt foundations and loop holes for the rich. Now that we see the domestic strangle-hold the CFR/TC has on us, let us see where they are leading us next.

The ultimate intentions of the CFR/TC go well beyond the economic control of the American people. For the third time in this century, the super rich are attempting to set up "The New World Order". The first attempt was the League of Nations; the second attempt was the United Nations. Trilateralism is their latest attempt at a world dictatorship. What "The New World Order" amounts to is a world government in which the rich will rule (no competition). World government has been the dream of tyrants since the beginning of time. So far, all attempts have failed. How much more successful do you think this coalition of the world's wealthiest people will be? They have been working at it for some time now, let's see if we can get an idea of how far they have come.

The CFR/TC is trying to maneuver the U.S. into a position where acceptance of "The New World Order" is our only alternative. One area they have been very successful at is the disarming of the U.S. Around 1960 we were the most powerful nation on the face of the earth. It has been all downhill since then. For example, when Robert McNamara, a CFR member, was our Secretary of Defense, he: reduced our nuclear striking force by 50%, destroyed all our intermediate and medium range missiles, cancelled our 24 megaton bomb, scrapped 3/4 of our multi-megaton missiles, cut Minuteman missiles by 50%, froze a number of Polaris submarines at 41, refused to allow the development of any new weapon systems (except the controversial TFX or F-111), cancelled Skybolt, Pluto, Dynasoar, and Orion Missile systems. The Nixon Administration got rid of our defensive anti-missile systems with the SALT-I treaty. The Carter Administration cancelled the B-1 bomber, stopped production of Minuteman III, put the brakes on the Trident submarine, delayed deploying the MX ICBM missiles and the Tomahawk Cruise Missiles, cut the ship building program in half, put off deployment of the "Neutron Bomb" and reduced our combat ready troops to an all time low. It would have taken the Soviet Union a full scale nuclear attack to top that. Never before has the United States been so recklessly placed at the mercy of so powerful an enemy.

At this point you may wonder why the super rich, with the most to lose, would be playing into the hands of the Soviet Union. Actually, the super rich who make up the CFR/TC have no fear of communism. The reason lies in the history of Russia becoming a communist country.

Between the collapse of the Czar and Bolshevik revolution, there was a provisional government. The leader, Prince Lvov, wanted to pattern the new Russian Government after the American republic. With the natural resources of Russia and a free enterprise economic system, they could have easily become a second America. This represented a threat to the super rich. Remember, they regard competition as a sin. To eliminate this competition - before it got started, they financed the Bolshevik Revolution (this is a matter of record). So, instead of the down trod masses, it was the world's super rich that brought communism to Russia. By saddling the Russian people with an unproductive economic system, they not only eliminated the competition but they also created a country that would be dependent on them and, therefore, under their control. Once communism was established, it could not sustain itself. Lenin himself, admitted this to the socialist, Armand Hammer. In the early days, the bankers gave them direct aid; after WWI the food for peace program pulled them through; during WWII the lend-lease act saved them; more recently it has been the technology "exchanges", grain sales, and loans from CFR/TC controlled banks that have kept them afloat. The system doesn't work and the conspirators knew it wouldn't from the start. In fact, that is how they control the Soviet Union; the communists know their survival depends on the economic help of the CFR/TC cartel. Their control is now great enough that they feel they can safely disarm the U.S. and proceed on with "The New World Order".

Their strategy is the same as the European international bankers in the 1800's. Where all the nations were indebted to them and if any one nation got out of line, they would arm a rival nation to discipline them. The principle being, to create an "enemy" that can be used to control or manipulate the other nations. Today Russia is the "enemy". But first the U.S. must be eliminated as protector of the free world through disarmament or as in the case of the Carter Administration, outright betrayal of our allies. This would force the nations to come to terms with Russia. The CFR/TC game plan is to use Russia to manipulate them into accepting "The New World Order". The ultimate threat, of course, is for the U.S. to be put into a position where we could not say no to a nuclear ultimatum. Then their goal of a world dictatorship would become a reality. If we allow this to happen, freedom, as we know it today, will be lost for ourselves and our posterity.

Our new President is in a position to help change all this. Any significant change would mean getting rid of the CFR/TC insiders. The enemy is all around him, but he doesn't seem to recognize them. Unless the CFR/TC is exposed to the American public, the Reagan Administration will end up under their control and very little will change. The American people must be informed; and insist that the CFR/TC insiders along with their liberal and moderate supporters be thrown out. The American Legion's Resolution 773 has called for, "...the Congress of the U.S. to launch a comprehensive investigation into the TC and its parent organization the CFR, to determine what influence has been and is being exerted over the foreign and domestic policies of the United States." (Note, the CFR/TC controlled news media has all but ignored them.) Only when Ronald Reagan is freed from the influence of the CFR/TC will he be able to do what is necessary to restore America to greatness. He can't do it alone.

This information is being distributed as a public educational program. The purpose is to inform the American people about the presence of the conspiracy that has a strangle-hold on our country. Freedom is not free, it was bought with a price and must be diligently watched over and protected or it will be taken away. It has happened in too many countries already and it can happen here. However, if enough people get involved the CFR/TC will have to change their plans as PUBLIC OPINION IS A VERY POWERFUL FORCE. Your help is urgently needed while there is still time to do something. The fate of America is in your hands. Here is how you can help:
