FINCHEM
— FOR SECRETARY OF STATE —

Hello Jack,

If even the fraudulent and corrupt Democrats thought the battle for Election Integrity was over, why would there still be so much anti-Election Integrity propaganda? As a general rule, no one is going to stop the propaganda machine unless they think the war is still raging.

That is exactly what is happening in Arizona. Check out some of these recent headlines:

Trump's Business Took In At Least $81,000 From Election-Denying Candidates For Secretary Of State

From blaming international problems in South America on the Election Integrity movement in the United States, to painting me as a “phony cowboy” to slamming President Trump, it is clear that the Left’s propaganda machine is still in full force.

The only question is if they think the battle is over, why would they keep trying to keep Election Integrity Patriots down with a full court press of Leftist propaganda against the people they claim they legitimately beat? The story doesn’t make any sense. Their “victory” is built on a house of cards that they are trying desperately to protect with this childish propaganda.

Now, here’s the real question. If they think the battle is still going (which they clearly do), why have so many of us given up? The fight is still raging!

Right now I am fighting against Hobbs and Fontes’ vindictive lawyers as well as an activist judicial system that is trying to punish the Election Integrity movement with radical an punitive sanctions.
