

Antishyster News Magazine, renamed recently to Suspicious, has number of excellent articles of great interest to the freedom lover and the Christian. Alfred Adask, a Christian who writes the magazine as his ministry, is a great man and a good friend who has been publishing this magazine since 1990. He has graciously given us permission to post articles written by him on our website. As of about mid 2003, the magazine was shut down, because the author was wrongfully persecuted by the government over child support issues. Since that time, the author has been trying to start it back up again, but he has not yet succeeded.

An annual subscription to his news magazine used to cost $29, and the subscription gives you access to the last seven years of issues. The magazine is distributed in Adobe Acrobat format only. Printed versions are no longer distributed. Contact:

The list of articles below is a small subset of the total archive of articles found in Alfred's wonderful magazine. We encourage you to subscribe to his magazine if or when he brings it back online so that you can have access to all of his materials. His original website at <http://antishyster.net> has been shut down. The URL for his current blog is:
