YOU AND I

You and I Sweetie Pie
 Walking in the fall of our lives
 Dreaming together of all our yesterdays
 Another anniversary, another year, another day

You and I Sweetie Pie
 Making our way in the winter of our lives
 Spreading our wings in the snow into snow angels
 Another anniversary, another year, another day

You and I Sweetie Pie
 Loving those around us who are part of us
 Even though some make life difficult
 Another anniversary, another year, another day

You and I Sweetie Pie
 Loving every minute even when we cry
 Knowing this is the way
 Another anniversary, another year, another day

You and I Sweetie Pie
 Taking care of those around us
 Giving them our strength to stay on

Another anniversary, another year, another day

You and I Sweetie Pie

Loving each other

Laughing and crying for just one more day

Another anniversary, another year, another day

You and I Sweetie Pie

Loving even those who turn us away

We love on for

Another anniversary, another year, another day

Love on Sweetie Pie

Even to those who cannot say

I love you Mom

Another anniversary, another year, another day

Love on Sweetie Pie

Even when you cannot cry

Know that love grows more each day

Love needs no anniversary nor another year nor another day

"A thing long expected takes the form of the unexpected when at last it comes"
Mark Twain
