“The 2024 presidential election simplified:

There is no election to be had based on every traditional predictor outside of the ability to cheat in exactly 8 states, plus the second CD of Nebraska.

The main states are NC, AZ, NV, PA, MI, WI, and GA.

FL and TX are not playable for Harris.

My measurements, even accounting for cheating detected in 2020, give Trump NV close, and NC, AZ, PA comfortably, which is enough to win the election with 271 electoral votes.

By extension of IA, WI also goes to Trump by 1.4 to 4.1%, that’s 281, and where I have the race pegged today.

That leaves MI, GA, NH, and NE-2 as possibles for Harris, and MI/GA only thanks to Auto Voter Registration and corruption.

All other numbers and all polling from the MSM is NOISE.

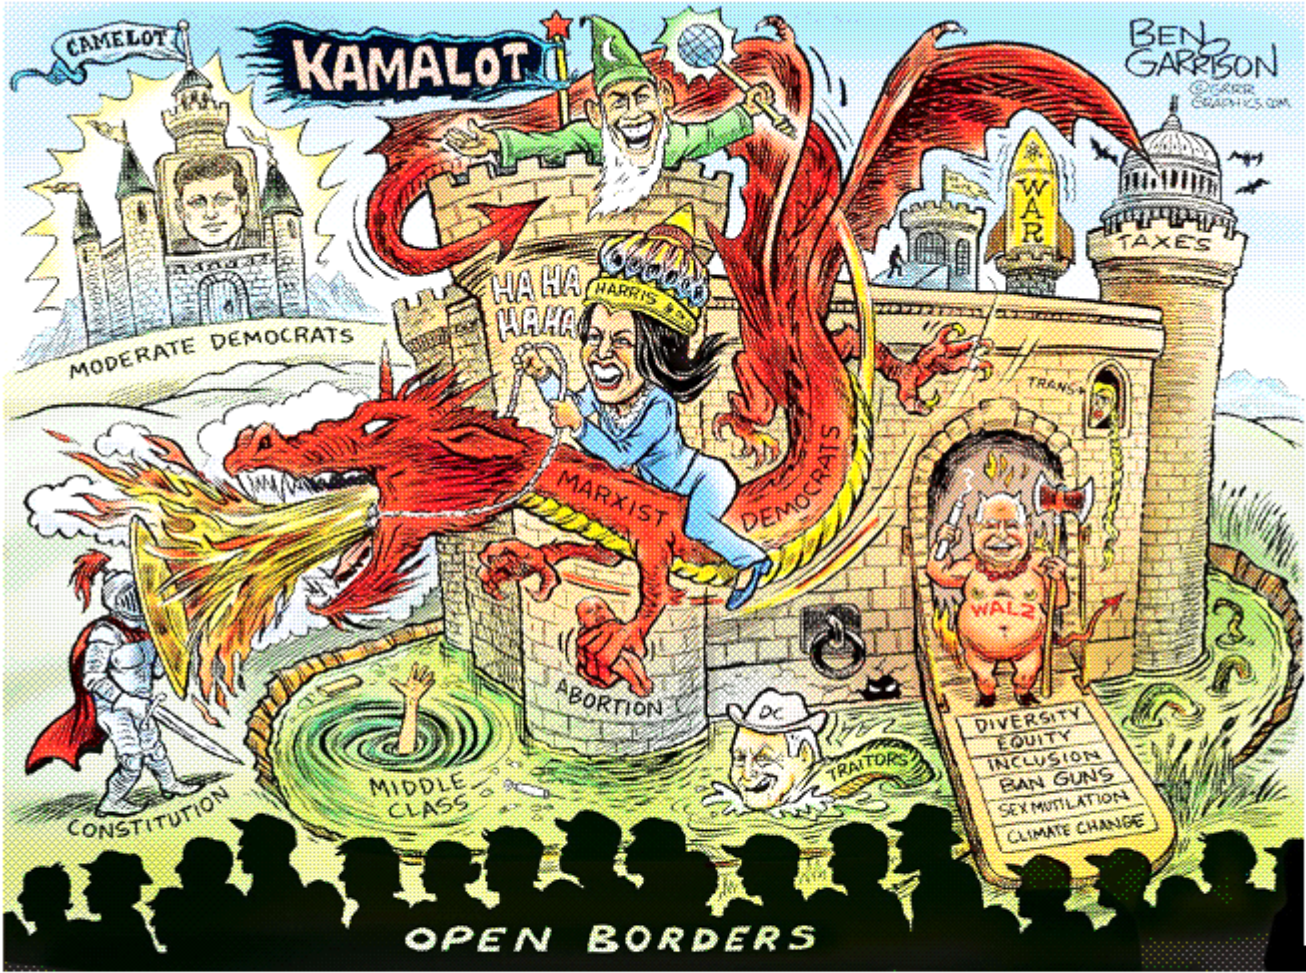

If she had this won, there would be no attempts on Trump or third world debates.”
