Smith filed his affidavit through California attorney Orly Taitz, v several lawsuits challenging Barack Obama's constitutional eligibility as president, as part of a case that includes as plaintiff former president Keyes.

Taitz posted on her blog Smith's declaration, which claims he obtained a birth certificate from Coast General Hospital in Mombasa, Kenya, and

"The true and correct photocopy of the birth certificate obtained by Smith is attached to this affidavit as Exhibit A," the declaration reads. "I declare, certify, and affirm under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing statements of fact and descriptions of circumstances are true and correct."

Smith's affidavit, which includes a copy of the certificate, has been filed with Judge David Carter of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California. Carter is scheduled to preside over a hearing on the case on Sept. 8.

Taitz told WND she believes the swiftly approaching court date will prompt a legal action:

"He has been in touch with me for quite a while, and he emailed me a copy of his signature," Taitz said. "I think he was trying to figure out the best way to bring his message public, and maybe he felt that because I have a legal background that would be the most expedient way."

Taitz hopes the court will order expedited discovery, a ruling that would allow Obama's currently sealed documents, including his college records and a form birth certificate, to court scrutiny.

"We'll see what happens on Tuesday. If Judge Carter has the guts to act fast," Taitz told WND. "If expedited discovery is ordered, I'll be on the plane to Hawaii College and then be on a flight to Hawaii."

In his filing, Smith declares that he traveled to Kenya in February 2009 as a military officer in order to obtain a copy of the birth certificate for Barack Obama at a Hospital in Mombasa. The declaration also states that the hospital official signed and sealed the copy, which indicates Obama's birth in Africa on February 23, 1961, at 10:30 p.m.

As WND reported, Smith released a video of the document he claimed to be Obama's hospital birth record, though an investigation by Jerome K. Scalet document is a forgery.

WND first reported earlier this year when Lucas Smith, a former resident of Rapids, Iowa, and known by the eBay handle "colmado_naranja," sold a document proving Obama's birth in Mombasa, Kenya.

After promising to reveal the document to WND, Smith then dropped out with a team of people offering to help him verify the document, but the sale – and therefore the alleged document – was a scam.

WND followed Smith's ongoing saga as "colmado_naranja" as he attempted multiple times to sell the document, or photos and stories surrounding it, but the auctions repeatedly removed by site administrators.

WND also launched an investigation into "colmado_naranja," which identified several online aliases and reported collaborators, including Dawr "InspectorSmith" and, eventually, Lucas Smith.

Smith, whose background includes a lengthy criminal record and a plan to sell his kidney to a man in need of organ transplant, nonetheless remains above board, even if his past looks dubious.

"I do have a background. I've made mistakes in my life," Smith told WND. "It took a guy like me to go and get tangible proof about Obama. There are a few laws or policies here and there. I don't mind paying the military in a few countries to look the other way ... The military [in Africa] will grant you anything for just a few dollars. People are starving. So yes, it takes a few things done once in a while."

An enhanced version of the Smith YouTube video has been published permitting a more legible examination of the document.

WND has also determined that a supposed Kenyan birth certificate by attorney Orly Taitz is also a forgery.

WND has reported on an authentic 1961-era Kenyan birth certificate distinctly different from the document Smith released in the video.

Housewife	Mother's occupation
Kenya Citizen	Mother's nationality
H. Charamia, Hon. M.C. Athman B. Council.	Signature, description and residence of informant
28.11.61	Date of birth
28.11.61	Date of registration
	Baptismal name if added or altered after registration of birth
	Reference to register

WND has reported on dozens of legal challenges to Obama's status as a naturalized citizen. The Constitution, Article 2, Section 1, states, "No Person born in the United States, or a Citizen of the United States, at the time of the Adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the Office of President."

Some of the lawsuits question whether he was actually born in Hawaii. If he was born out of the country, Obama's American mother, the Supreme Court ruled in 1982 that he was young at the time of his birth to confer American citizenship to his children at the time.

Other challenges have focused on Obama's citizenship through his father, who was subject to the jurisdiction of the United Kingdom at the time of his birth.

him a dual citizen. The cases contend the framers of the Constitution intended to restrict citizenship to those born citizens from qualifying as natural born.

Complicating the situation is Obama's decision to spend sums estimated in the hundreds of thousands of dollars to avoid releasing a state birth certificate. The campaign has put to rest the questions.

WND has reported that among the documentation not yet available are his kindergarten records, Punahou school records, Occidental College records, Columbia University records, Columbia thesis, Harvard Law School records, Law Review articles, scholarly articles from the University of Chicago, medical records, files from his years as an Illinois state senator, his records with the American Bar Association records, any baptism records, and his adoption records.

Because of the dearth of information about Obama's eligibility, Valerie Farah has launched a campaign to raise contributions to post billboards with the question: "Where's the birth certificate?"

"Where's The Birth Certificate?" billboard at the Mandalay Bay resort Strip

The campaign followed a petition that has collected more than 450,000 signatures.

demanding proof of his eligibility, the availability of yard signs and the production of permanent, detachable magnetic bumper sticker question.

The "certification of live birth" posted online and widely touted as a "certificate" does not in any way prove he was born in Hawaii, since a "long-form" document is easily obtainable for children not born in Hawaii. A "short-form" birth certificate – which includes information such as the name of the hospital and attending physician – is the only document that can prove someone was born in Hawaii, but to date he has not permitted its release for public viewing.

Oddly, though congressional hearings were held to determine whether McCain was constitutionally eligible to be president as a "natural born citizen," no controlling legal authority ever sought to verify Obama's claim to be a natural born citizen.

Your donation – from as little as $5 to as much as $1,000 – can be made at any WND SuperStore. (Donations are not tax-deductible.
